Jesus and the woman taken in adultery (often called Pericope Adulterae for short) is a passage found in John 8:1–20, that has been the subject of much scholarly discussion. In the passage, Jesus was teaching in the Second Temple after coming from the Mount of Olives. A group of scribes and Pharisees confronts Jesus, interrupting his teaching. They bring in a woman, ...

Jun 01, 2012 · Tim wrote: "Why is a list of "Best Historical Jesus Books" dominated by books by amateurs and hobbyists, largely self-published, which claim there was no historical Jesus? This list is ridiculous." This list should be dominated by books that show Jesus never existed. Don't be afraid of the truth.
Apr 13, 2020 · The subtitles of Ehrman’s books, including his five New York Times bestsellers, capture his premises: e.g., Misquoting Jesus: The Story Behind Who Changed the Bible and Why, How Jesus Became God: the Exaltation of a Jewish Preacher from Galile e, and Forged: Writing in the Name of God—Why the Bible’s Authors Are Not Who We Think They Are.

Jan 03, 2010 · Jesus said the second most important commandment is “Love each other as I have loved you.” Do not follow man’s way or his beliefs by following the man-made denominational churches. The only church is the one that Jesus started with Peter his disciple/apostle: the church of the firstborn from the dead.

El Jesus Seminar cree que los debates sobre la Escritura y la doctrina son rabínicos en el estilo y no características de Jesús. [135] Ellos creen que estas «historias de conflicto» representan los conflictos entre la comunidad cristiana primitiva y quienes los rodeaban: los fariseos, saduceos, etc. El grupo cree que estos, a veces, son

Jesus And The Donkey The four gospels of the New Testament depict the life and ministry of Jesus from four different points of view. But for some odd reason they all tell us how Jesus entered the City of Jerusalem for the last time riding on …

Jan 12, 2017 · Every time preachers say, “Jesus said there’s no marriage in heaven,” they are misquoting Jesus. They are putting words into his mouth that he did not say. That’s not right. Please, don’t make Jesus say something he simply didn’t say. On your second point: Romans 7:2–3 must be read in context, or we’ll miss the point.

Aug 10, 2018 · To support her claim, Rowan goes on to quote Bart Ehrman (p. 28), a “New Testament scholar” who on his own blog renounces Christianity and is most famous for his published criticisms of the New Testament’s reliability, including best-seller Misquoting Jesus: The Story Behind Who Changed the Bible and Why.

At the same time, we should understand that the basic impulse behind rebuilding the temple is not of God at all – the desire to have a place to sacrifice for sin. Christians believe that all sacrifice for sin was finished at the cross, and any further sacrifice for sin is an offense to God, because it denies the finished work of Jesus on the
