Contrast - Examples and Definition of Contrast

In grammar, tense is a category that expresses time reference. Tenses are usually manifested by the use of specific forms of verbs, particularly in their conjugation patterns. The main tenses found in many languages include the past, present, and future. Some languages have only two distinct tenses, such as past and nonpast, or future and nonfuture. There are also tenseless …

Negation (Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy)

Contrast comes from the Latin word, contra stare, meaning to stand against. Usually, though not always, writers use phrases and words to indicate a contrast such as but, yet, however, instead, in contrast, nevertheless, on the contrary, and unlike. For instance, E. B. White, in his novel Stuart Little, brings a contrast between Stuart and other babies, using the word unlike:
